TWELVE DAY JUNE MARATHON.

The June on-air fundraising drive will begin Friday morning June 4, and end twelve days later on Tuesday night, June 15. During this time we hope to raise at least $75,000 in pledges. At about the same time, we'll have a Marathon-by-Mail letter going out to many of you, through which we hope to raise another $15,000 or more for a total of $90,000 to help us get through the summer. With expenses up and resources low, we appreciate your support in these trying times. Many of the factors making our survival tenuous also make WBAI all the more essential.

SUMMER SWITCHBOARD HOURS.

Our switchboard number, (279-0707) will be operative on a limited basis to save money over the summer. The new hours will be: noon to 5 pm, Monday through Friday.

FOLIO FORMAT.

Due to severe financial constraints this issue of the guide includes June and July programming. August and September will also be combined; we hope to return to our regular style in October.

WATERGATE REVISITED. As we approach the 10th anniversary of the break-in at the Democratic National Committee we take a fond retrospective of that great period. Remember Tony Ulasziewicz? Can you tell the difference between Robert Mardian and Fred Larue? Relive those golden days of yesteryear; with an update in light of new disclosures. Produced by Richard Barr, with special guests, perhaps. June 7 at 8:30 pm.

DISARMAMENT FORUM ON CABLE. On March 5, WBAI held a forum on disarmament and nuclear proliferation at the Graduate Center of the City University of New York. This forum was videotaped for broadcast on public access television and will be shown on Manhattan Cable, Channel D, on June 7 at 8:30 pm.

Dear Editor,

As I was listening to your Evening News program last night, I realized that the coverage of anything dealing with the Mideast, specifically the Palestinian/Israeli conflict was consistantly pro-PLO. I was waiting to hear something, anything good, about Israel, other than the one-sided PLO presentations of that reality propounded to such excess by TV, big money, oil and the U.N.

Then I heard an advertisement for a future hour-long program, also more PLO divine-right-for-homeland stuff. Whose homeland is it? Why isn't self-determination for the Israeli peoples discussed? Is the PLO really the only spokesman for the Palestinian people?

I've long thought WBAI was our only hope for fairness and a voice of Truth in the slanted media. The struggle in Israel cannot be likened to other far more brutal Juntas, regimes or occupying powers. Arguments for, citations and defenses of Israel's most unique and complex position need to be more addressed. I am a long-time supporter of BAI. Therefore I must question if it is merely chic for the liberal people's voice to denounce Israel. The integrity and attitudes of the media, and certainly this station, with regards to dangerous over-simplification of this issue is an insult. I'd like to think WBAI would be offering something different.

Sincerely,
Barbara C. Lubell
